

2015 - Iredell County Teams Compete in Southern Piedmont Envirothon

Iredell Soil and Water Conservation District sponsored seven local teams to compete in the Southern Piedmont Envirothon at Catawba College Center for the Environment. Three middle school teams attended the event on March 17, 2015. Angela Offchis led two teams from Brawley Middle School and Natalie Stover led one team from Northview IB Middle School. Four high school teams participated on March 18, 2015. Lenae Scafidi led two teams from South Iredell High School and Barbara Huth led two teams Mooresville Senior High School.

The Envirothon is an opportunity for middle school and high school students in a 12 county region to compete on environmental topics which include: Wildlife, Soil Conservation, Forestry, Aquatics, and Current Environmental Issues. The top seven scoring teams from the middle and high school levels qualify to compete at the state level of competition.

Students that participated in the competition this year include:

From Brawley Middle School: Kevin Caverly, Luke Crone, Logan Matheny, Dosson Smalley, Jonas Courtney, Bradley Crutchfield, Kelsey Dolack, Kyrsten Heinecke-Baumgardner, Matthew Doyle and Brody Menzer.

From Northview, an IBO World School: Caitlin Smith, Brianna Risner, Kelly Wilson and Aubreanna Funderburk.

From Mooresville High School: Kylie Houston, Sarah Archer, Diana Durk, Tim Chisholm, Nick Castanho, Keanny Cloete, Cami Bryson and Rebecca Walker.

From South Iredell High School: Anna Marie Allen, John Kerhoulas, Caleb Reep, Carolyn Drahuse, Heath Thompson, Autumn Self, Dale Ferguson and Jacob Morley.

Iredell SWCD promotes the wise use and management of our natural resources: soil, water, air, plants, and animals. The District administers and supports local, state, and federal programs which improve water quality and reduce non-point source pollution on both agricultural and non-agricultural lands. The District also provides educational programs. For more information, visit www.Iredellswcd.org or call 704.873.6761 ext. 3.

Louise Wooten
Education Coordinator

Pictures on following page

Brawley Middle School students

Northview IB Middle School students

Mooresville High School students

South Iredell High School students