

Vacancy Announcement

District Cost-Share Soil Conservationist

Job Description: Individual will be involved with writing plans, implementing, inspecting and record keeping for the North Carolina Agricultural Cost Share Program. This individual will also write and implement other type's conservation plans and waste utilization plans, as well as present informational presentations to civic and school groups as needed. Occasionally, the duties of the job will require occasional work in extreme temperatures and inclement weather, and will periodically be physically demanding.

Minimum Education and Experience: A minimum associate degree in soil conservation or other natural resource related fields. Agricultural background is preferred but not required. Outside work is required, with survey, engineering and other technical skills needed.

Other Preferred Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: Applicant will need a computer, office machine skills. Must be able to work with public in all types of situations.

Salary will be commensurate on experience, if chosen applicant will be required to submit to fingerprinting, background and credit check.

Please send resumes only to:

Jonathan Creason
Iredell Soil & Water Conservation District
444 Bristol Dr.
Statesville, NC 28677
704-873-6761 ext. 3
jonathan.creason@nc.nacdnet.net

Job will be open until filled.

